ORDER : (Per the Honourable Smt. Justice T. Meena kumari)

This is a taken up case on the Telegram issued by the petitioner seeking a direction to the respondents 2 & 4 to register a complaint given by the petitioner vide SR No.6505 of 2005 dated 21-06-2005 so as to save the petitioner and his family members from harassment.

The Inspector of Police, Pahad Shareer Police Station, Hyderabad has filed the counter-affidavit denying the allegations in the Telegram. It is contended in the counter-affidavit that as a matter of fact, a report was given by the daughter-in-law of the petitioner and to that effect, a case in Cr.No.132 of 2005 was registered by the Pahad Shareef Police Station, Hyderabad for the offences under section 498-A and 323 of I.P.C. In that regard, as a counter blast, the petitioner has also filed a private complaint before the learned Judicial Magistrate, North and East at L.B.Nagar, Ranga Reddy District against his daughter-in-law, her brother and mother for the offences punishable under sections 323,382 and 506 of I.P.C. r/w 34 of I.P.C. and the same was referred by the learned Magistrate to the Police for proper investigation. Basing on the said complaint, a case in Cr.No.157 of 2005 under sections 323,382 and 506 of I.P.C. r/w 34 of I.P.C. was registered on 29-8-2005.

It has been submitted by the learned G.P. for Home across the Bar that the dispute in question is a matrimonial matter and in that connection, the petitioner and his daughter-in-law have filed the cases against each other and therefore, the allegations made by the petitioner are not correct and as such, no further orders are necessary in this writ petition.

In view of the submission made by the learned G.P. for Home and in view of the averments made in the counter, We are of the view that no further orders are necessary in this writ petition and accordingly, the same is liable to be dismissed.

In the result, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
